Q4: What did you like about the 2021 WT Council Orientation Meeting?

Answered: 10 Skipped: 0

- It was a perfect introduction for new Council Members.
- I enjoyed being able to learn more about WT, especially in regard to the Olympics. It was great to learn about all the amazing things WT do for the sport and the projects they are doing to help others.
- I liked the well-designed and professionally prepared presentations.
- General background information is helpful and preview of upcoming events and WT business matters.
- WT staff did a great job preparing and delivering the presentation.
- Most of the content and procedures
- The transparency and clarity of the information
- All the information and participation of WT staff and excellent show up of members

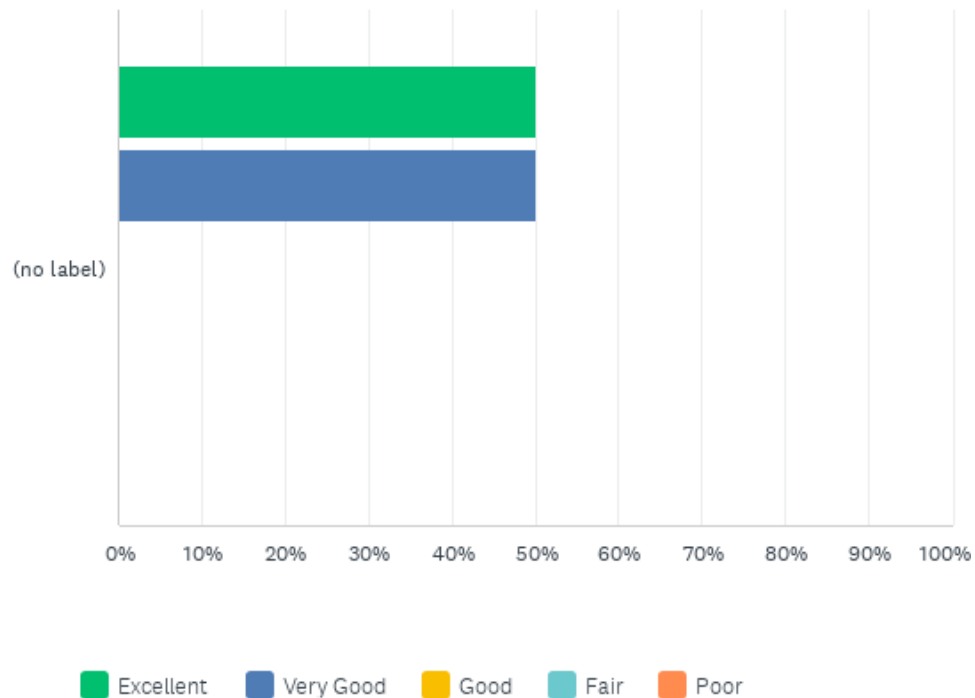

Q5: What did you like about the 2021 WT Council Orientation Meeting?

Answered: 10 Skipped: 0

- There was nothing to dislike about the WT meeting.
- Nothing
- The Zoom platform is always suboptimal compared to live meetings, but very efficient and cost effective.
- The meeting was too long especially when it is midnight in your time zone. I think it would have been perfect in person.
- Not at all, but looking forward to the off-line meeting after COVID-19.
- For me as a WT educator there were very well known subjects
- It was a little bit lengthy

Q7: Do you have any feedback or suggestion for the next Council Orientation Meeting (if any)?

Answered: 10 Skipped: 0

- It was a very well-run meeting; it was great having different speakers talk about the different areas within WT.
- Good as presented. Thank you.
- Greater exchange of opinions among council members
- To save time, some items like events and news can be sent to members to look at because it is an ongoing process.
