Although the person above is subject to the Special Entry Procedure upon arrival in the Republic of Korea and quarantine for 10 days after the entry to prevent the spread of COVID-19, the person applied for exemption from quarantine for reasons as stated above. The officer in charge has reviewed the request and hereby grants exemption to the applicant.

※ Note

- The certificate is valid for once and only when the person enters the country within one month after the issuance of the certificate.
- If the person fails to submit a negative PCR test result issued lawfully in the entry process (within 48 hours prior to the date of departure) in accordance with the standards of submitting a PCR negative test result, Quarantine Exemption Certificate becomes invalid.
- The person will receive a diagnostic test for COVID-19 upon entry into Korea at a temporary residential facility and wait for the result staying there for up to 2 days. The person will be exempt from quarantine if tested negative.
 - * People exempt from quarantine as those fully vaccinated abroad must wait for the test result in a place such as his/her place of accommodation, after the specimen collection at a public health center having jurisdiction over his/her place of address.
- Even though the person was issued the certificate, the validity of the certificate will immediately terminate and the person will be placed under quarantine/isolation if the person tests positive upon arrival or is identified as a contact of a confirmed case, or a suspected case of COVID-19, and the person should follow quarantine/isolation guidelines.
- Even though the person was issued the certificate for a person fully vaccinated overseas, the certificate immediately becomes invalid if he/she is confirmed to have stayed in, departed from, or had a layover in countries excluded from quarantine exemption for fully vaccinated visitors, within 10 days before entering into Korea.
- After the entry, the person should install the Self-Check Mobile App following the instructions of the disease control authorities and report his/her health status every day through the app.

- If the Quarantine Exemption Period exceeds 7 days, the person is obligated to receive a diagnostic test (funded by the government) within 6-7 days of entry and submit the copy of negative COVID-19 test result within 8 days of entry to the examination authorities and the local government responsible for his/her place of address. If the person fails to comply with these obligations, the quarantine exemption may be terminated and he or she may be subject to immediate quarantine.
- The person should comply with disease prevention guidelines, adhere to the Itinerary for Quarantine Exemption Period (not applicable for those exempt from quarantine after being fully inoculated abroad), and faithfully follow quarantine/isolation orders made by the disease control authorities as necessary. If the person pursues any activities other than the stated purpose of his/her visit, the validity of the quarantine exemption will immediately terminate and the person will be subject to quarantine and could face criminal punishment or deportation in accordance with the Infectious Disease Control and Prevention Act or other relevant regulations.
- Providing false information will result in criminal punishment in accordance with the Infectious Disease Control and Prevention Act, and/or denial of entry, deportation, or criminal punishment in accordance with the Immigration Act.
- Quarantine exemption based on a humanitarian purpose is restricted to visits for funerals (up to 7 days).
- If the person stays in Korea exceeding the quarantine exemption period (up to 7 days in case of visits on a humanitarian purpose), he/she should visit a healthcare center near the address in Korea stated in the certificate, report himself/herself, and undergo self-quarantine or facility quarantine (required to pay up to KRW 150,000 a day) until the 15th day of arrival in accordance with disease control measures.
