

LONDON 2017

Dear Taekwondo Family,

The year 2017 marks the start of the first-ever Paralympic cycle for World Para Taekwondo following the IPC Governing Boards decision in 2015 to include Para Taekwondo on the official program of the 2020 Tokyo Paralympic Games.

As you are well aware, Kyorugi is the competition format for the Paralympic Games. However, it is our aim to make taekwondo a sport for all, regardless of ability. Poomsae for athletes with an intellectual impairment (P20) and athletes with a motor impairment (P30) will be included on the program for the 7th World Para Taekwondo Championships in London in October 2017.

New for 2017 are the World Ranking for the P20 Sport Class and the new age categories used. This is a step on the road also to have Poomsae included on the program of the Paralympic Games and I am certain that we will get there together.

The 2017 World Para Taekwondo Championships are the first one to be held since the event became a biennial event and will hold a G-10 World Para Taekwondo Ranking status, making it the highest-ranking competition on the Para Taekwondo calendar and will be essential for any athlete aiming to hold the world's number 1 spot at the end of the year.

I look forward to a record participation in London and assure you that the 2017 World Para Taekwondo Championships will be well organized and be a suitable start to the 2020 Tokyo Paralympic cycle.

Best luck to all competitors!

Chungwon Choue
